

Your Unique Blend for Maximum Impact

God thought through every part of you. God has designed you with a unique blend of spiritual gifts, wiring, passions, and circumstances. These key components make up your God-given design. When you can bring all of these come together for impacting others in a significant way, it is like finding your own personal sweet spot and maximizing your potential.

