

COURAGEOUS PARENTING

SMALL GROUP COVENANT

Commitment to God

As commanded in Deuteronomy 6:4-6, we commit to loving the Lord our God with all our heart, soul, and strength and to growing in whole-hearted love for Him through developing life patterns of spiritual growth, including daily time in Bible reading and prayer, commitment to weekly worship with our church family, and using our spiritual gifts to serve the body of Christ. The faith we pass on to our children will be one which is authentically lived out in our lives.

Commitment to our Family

As further commanded in Deuteronomy 6:7-9 and Ephesians 6:1-4, we commit to engrave God's Word and God's ways purposefully and diligently on the hearts of our children and to order our family around loving and following Jesus as our highest calling. (If married) We recognize that our marriage is the foundation for a spiritually thriving family and will prioritize laying and building that strong foundation.

Commitment to our Group

Together with our Courageous Parenting Small Group, we commit to encourage, support, and challenge each other to grow in our love for God, our calling as parents, and our love for people by faithfully meeting together in an open, honest, and gracious environment, by praying for one another, by humbly wrestling with challenging parenting issues together, and by building each other up as we grow together into the likeness of Jesus. (Hebrews 10:24-25; Ephesians 4:2, 15-16, 25, 29; Colossians 3:16; 1 Thessalonians 5:11; Romans 12:10)

Together, we make these commitments to God, our families, and one another.
